ADDITIONAL INFORMATION 1

Reporting Officer: B.M. BLAQUIERE 5659

Your affiant, Det. B.M. Blaquiere, who has been with the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office for thirteen years and has investigated child abuse cases for eight, investigated the injuries of the [REDACTED] old victim. The victim was in the care, custody and control of the defendant who was acting as a [REDACTED]. On 09-26-06 the victim was observed with a bloody nose as he got on a day care van. He told the driver the defendant hit him for reportedly not putting his shoes on. The driver also stated that on many occasions the victim, along with his siblings, would get on the van and sit on the floor. When asked why he was told they were not allowed to sit on the furniture. He frequently had to remind them to sit in the seats.

On 10-05-06, another day care employee noted bruising on the victim's back during a wellness check. The victim was examined at the Child Protection Team where he disclosed, "My [REDACTED] hit me with a belt." ARNP Patricia Swinehart diagnosed the back injuries as diagnostic of abuse. The victim disclosed to the DCF employee the defendant struck him in the nose and also hit him on the back with a belt. Witnesses reported the victim and the siblings came to the day care on many occasions with a foul odor and unkept.

On 11-29-06 the defendant turned herself after I informed her of the warrant. Post Miranda she denied hitting the victim with any object.
